Approved For Releas CLASSIFICATIONS			₹DF264-000	510A00360	00720003-	3 022	818
COUNTRY East Germany			REPC	ORT
OPIC Information on KVP Verband			la melli spreed in creama, at videns in unit			25X1
25X1							-
VALUATION	PLACE O	BTAINED.		•		25)	X1
TATE OF CONTENT				25X1	THE STREET STREET, STR
ATE OBTAINED 25.	X1	_DATE PRE	PARED		9 Januar	у 1954	THE WINDOWS MICHIGAN CONTRACTOR OF THE CONTRACTO
EFERENCES						Manager of Adjustines on the Appropriate Sea	and the second second second second
AGES 3 ENCLOSURES (No. 8	type)_			and the state of t	······································	andre ary management of processors
EMARKS	1 Breakly property		alle style til fillstad stylender av te byggang senny			Carrie Walle Workshop No. 19.400 A
	HAVEN LONGAL BETTER PROPERTY FOR	- No. of the Contraction of the	Marine warren water war ne en		California (C. California de C	der A delalation expediencials.
25X1		-		-		······································
1		٠
		12 December		December 1953	. 1	anuary .954
	©ffi- cers	NCOs and EM .	Offi- cers	NCOs and EM	Offi- cers	NCOs and EM
		-1-		,
Headquarters	87	39	86	36	92	36
Headquarters company	4	66	3	64	3	65
Motor transport section	7	68	7	67	9	76
Maintenance echelon	8	57	8	56	7	55
D-1 Unit (signal battalion)	28	181			27	177
Headquarters battery	4	40			4	37
Sound- and flash-ranging section	5	50			5	48
Driving school	5	168
S-1 Unit (motorcycle battalion)	23	141			22	135
Bakery company	4	9	Hi n	•	6	11
Chemical defense platoon		23		23		23
Hospital						60	, ,
Soviet advisors					12		1
CLASSIFICATION	SECRET	· A		*			25

Approved For Release 2006/01/31 : CIA-RDP80-00810A003600720005-8 25X1

SECRET,				25X1
			 . *
	~

2. On 19 December 1953, the regiments of Verband Prenzlau had the following strengths:

3d A-Kommando: 1,514 officers, NCOs and EM; B-Kommando : 1,140 officers, NCOs and EM; C-Kommando : 504 officers, NCOs and EM.

1

3. On the days mentioned, the 2d A-Kommando (Unit Muenter) had the following strength:

+ 1	L2 Decem	ber 953			ember 953		nuary
	Offi- cers	NCOs spd EM		Offi- cers	NCOs and EM	Offi- cars	NCOs and EM	SOURCE SHOOM FROM SHOULD
Headquarters	33	15		32	15	33	15	Let I
Regimental school	7	111		8	109	7	109
Driving school						7	30
lst Battalion	35	238		36	264	34	267
2d Battalion	44	266		42	262	43	238
3d Battalion	38	272		37	269	38	272
S-1 Unit	5	25		4	27	4	27
S-2 Unit	6	38		6	36	5	40
S-3 Unit	4	41.		4	40	5	41
S-4 Unit	5	40		6	41	6	42
S-5 Unit	1	19		1	19	1	19
S-6 Unit	4	37		4	3 8	4	42
S-7 Unit	4	21		4	21	4	22
Motor transport company	5	64		5	66	9	69
Headquarters platoon		9			9		9
B-staff (supply)	4	18		5	19	5	19
Chemical defense section		7			7		7
Administrative section		32			38		33
Military band				1	10	11	10
Cooking course	2	58	-	2	58	2	58
On sick list		22			17		19
Detained in military pris	on	20			15		10	1
	4

25X1

25X1

former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condent of the war academy in Dresden. The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.6. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresden.
Colonel Riedel (fnu), commanding officer; Lieutenant Colonel Sommer (fnu), whief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Sommer (fnu), thief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Mister (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Schlegel (fnu), deputy FK officer; Lieutenant Colonel Mister (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Deckl (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Scheiblich (fnu), chief of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schlegel (fnu), K officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Molter (fnu), SSD officer; Scalor Lieutenant Kretechmar (fnu), SSD officer.  Salout 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later, About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arreated by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando, The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbruck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. forment It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the War time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet notorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AMA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Broegeheides. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was praviously kno		-3-
Colonel Riedel (fnu), commanding officer; Lieutenant Colonel Sommer (fnu), whief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Sommer (fnu), thief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Mister (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Schlegel (fnu), deputy FK officer; Lieutenant Colonel Mister (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Deckl (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Scheiblich (fnu), chief of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schlegel (fnu), K officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Molter (fnu), SSD officer; Scalor Lieutenant Kretechmar (fnu), SSD officer.  Salout 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later, About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arreated by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando, The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbruck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. forment It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the War time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet notorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AMA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Broegeheides. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was praviously kno
Colonel Riedel (fnu), commanding officer; Lieutenant Colonel Summer (fnu), chief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Glinke (fnu), chief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Matetr (fnu), delief of staff; Lieutenant Colonel Matetr (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Muenter (fnu), chief of the rear services; Major Muenter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schielpiel (fnu), FX officer, 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schiegel (fnu), FX officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Molter (fnu), SSD officer; Sanior Lieutenant Kratchann (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year, Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not rest to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando, The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus and the reported period of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Broegledide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dreede This fact possibly led to th	40	the following officers were assigned to
Lieutenant Colonel Ginner (fnu), K officer; Major Schlegel (fnu), deputy FK officer; Major Schlegel (fnu), deputy FK officer; Major Deckl (fnu), enter of the rear services; Major Maenter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schafblich (fnu), enter of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schafblich (fnu), personnal officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnal officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schafblich (fnu), personnal officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), agouty supply officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), SSD officer; Senior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made con dant of the war academy in Dresden.  8,000 men, 1.58.75 percent of the war time strength of Division Frenzlau did not change.  9,000 men, 1.58.75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Frenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Dresgeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Fr		Verband Prenzlau:
Identenant Colonel Glinke (fnu), Ex officer;  Najor Schlegel (fnu), deputy PK officer;  Lieutement Colonel Mieter (fnu), in charge of organization and planning;  Major Deckl (fnu), chief of the rear services;  Major Muenter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando;  Captain Schlegel (fnu), Fk officer, 2d A-Kommando;  Captain Schlegel (fnu), Fk officer, 2d A-Kommando;  Lieutement Fritsch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando;  Captain Keusch (fnu), SSD officer;  Senior Lieutement Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Yaar, Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommando dispatched field kitchens to Koen brueck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus  a,000 men, 1,5,75 percent of the west time strength and shout 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Drospheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.		Colonel Riedel (fnu), commanding officer;
Major Schlegel (fnu), deputy FK officer; Lieutenant Colonel Hister (fnu), in charge of organization and planning; Major Nachter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schelblich (fnu), ethef of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schlegel (fnu), FK officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnal officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), beputy supply officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), Sofficer; Senior Lieutenant Kratschmar (fnu), SSD officer,  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbrusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Drosden.  8,000 men, 1.58.75 percent of the war time strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.58.75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Frenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was praviously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.		Lieutenant Colonel Sommer (fnu), chief of staff;
Lieutemant Colonel Nieter (fam), in charge of organization and planning; Major Muenter (fam), chief of the rear services; Major Muenter (fam), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schebblich (fam), chief of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schlegal (fam), Fx Officer; 2d A-Kommando; Lieutemant Fritsch (fam), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fam), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fam), SSD officer; Senior Lieutemant Kretschmar (fam), SSD officer;  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7
Major Deckl (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Scheiblich (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Scheigel (fnu), FK officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritach (fnu), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), SSD officer; Senior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1,5. 79 percent of the War time strength and about 59 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1,5. 79 percent of the War time strength and about 59 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau did in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  9 Comment. It was previously known that Paulus too
Major Muenter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Scheiblich (fnu), chief of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Schlegel (fnu), PK officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), personnel officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), SSD officer; Senior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported exiod, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made con dant of the war academy in Dresden.  8. The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Frenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegoheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Komment. Verband to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
Captain Schlegel (fnu), FK officer, 2d A-Kommando; Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), deputy supply officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), SSD officer; Senior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave. Meny of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus and been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  8,000 men, 1.6. 7) percent of the War time strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  9,000 men, 1.6. 7) percent of the War time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Sowiet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Broegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.		Major Muenter (fnu), commanding officer of the 2d A-Kommando;
Lieutenant Fritsch (fnu), personnol officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Keusch (fnu), deputy supply officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), SSD officer; Sanior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ref to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7		Captain Scheiblich (fnu), chief of the staff of the 2d A-Kommando;
Captain Keusch (fnu), deputy supply officer of the 2d A-Kommando; Captain Wolter (fnu), SSD officer; Sentor Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not reft to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continuto be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the War time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Broegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment. of KVP billsts was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
Captain Wolter (fmu), SSD officer; Senior Lieutenant Kratschmar (fmu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8. Ono men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommande in Preogenicie. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment.  8. Comment.  9. Comment.  10. Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  13. Comment.  14. Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
Senior Lieutenant Kretschmar (fnu), SSD officer.  5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continuto be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen bruck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus and the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8.000 men, 1.5. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommande in Broegeleide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  1. Comment. It was praviously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
5. About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not reft to their unit from this leave, Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Drosden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change. The division still numbers approximate $3,000 men, i.s. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommande in Drosgeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment. Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
cover Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimend was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continuto be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change. Shoom men, 1.6. 79 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	_
to their unit from this leave. Many of the soldiers returned 3 or 4 days later. About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment, It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.6. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	20	About 50 percent each of the personnel of Verband Prenzlau was sent on leave
About 20 men, who exceeded their leaves were arrested by the local police and picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Frenzlau continued to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condent of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Frenzlau did not change.  8,000 men. 1.6. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Frenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.		over Christmas and over the New Year. Of the 2d A-Kommando, 120 men did not ret picked up by detachments of the 2d A-Kommando. The whereabouts of 12 men were completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Frenzlau continut to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brusck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condent of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. comment.  1. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVF academy in that city.
completely unknown. Of the entire Verband, allegedly more than 500 men did not return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continuto be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koenbrusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change. The division still numbers approximate $\frac{3}{9},000 men, i.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
return to their unit on time. A reprimand was given by Colonel Riedel to all commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  2. Comment. It was praviously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
commanding officers of units members of which had exceeded their leaves. The morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Frenzlau continu to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen bruck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condent of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change. The division still numbers approximate $\delta_0 000 men. 1.6. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figur it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen numbe about 300 men.  2. Comment.  1. Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	2 to be poor.  6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7 6. During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  3. Comment.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. tomment.  2. tomment.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	-	morale and the discipline among the component units of Verband Prenzlau continu brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  7. former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. comment.  2. comment.  Thus previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.
1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.s. /> percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  2. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dreede This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	6.	to be poor.
dant of the war academy in Dresden.  1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.6. 7) percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  This fact possibly led to the conclusion that Paulus took his residence in Dreeder This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	6.	to be poor.  During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer
1. Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  8,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  York on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	6.	to be poor.  During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen ont change.  8,000 men, i.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Comment.  The division still numbers approximate the strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and		to be poor.  During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized. 2
ont change.  8,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Comment.  The division still numbers approximate the strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and		During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.   former Field Marshal Paulus had been made companions.
ont change.  8,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Comment.  The division still numbers approximate the strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and 95 percent of the peace strength and		During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.   former Field Marshal Paulus had been made companions.
8,000 men, 1.s. 7) percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kemmando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7 °	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.   former Field Marshal Paulus had been made command of the war academy in Dresden.
peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7 °	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brueck where new KVF units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden. The strength of Division Prenzlau did it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7 °	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made command of the war academy in Dresden. The division prenzlau did not change.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.
engineer battalion of Division Frenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commendant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7.	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbrusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden. The division Prenzlau did not change.  Somment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate time strength and about 95 percent of the
2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7 °	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koenbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  Somment Field Marshal Paulus had been made commanded the war academy in Dresden. The division Prenzlau did not change.  Somment It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate the strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure
2. Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7 °	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koerbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden. The division Prenzlau did not change.  Source that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included.
work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city,	7 。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koer brueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden. The division Prenzlau did not change.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8.75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number.
work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7.	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koenbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus dant of the war academy in Dresden. 3 had been made combant of the war academy in Dresden. 3 had been made combant of the war academy in Dresden. 3 The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8.75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number.
of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.  3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7.	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koenbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  Solution of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.
3. Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7.	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koenbrueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8.75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.
This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP academy in that city.	7.	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brueck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condant of the war academy in Dresden.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  Sy000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  Comment.
KVP academy in that city,	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made command of the war academy in Dresden.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  3,000 men, 1.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figured it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were included in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  Comment.  Work on the construction of KVP billets was scheduled to be started in the fall of 1953.
	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.   former Field Marshal Paulus dant of the war academy in Dresden.   Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.   The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, i.e. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA battalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  Comment.  Comment.  The was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresdence in Dresden
	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus
	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus had been made condent of the war academy in Dresden.  Comment. It is believed that the total strength of Division Prenzlau did not change.  The division still numbers approximate 8,000 men, 1.8. 75 percent of the war time strength and about 95 percent of the peace strength of a Soviet motorized rifle division. In arriving at these figure it was assumed that the AT and AAA bettalions of Division Prenzlau were include in the figures given for the B-Kommando in Droegeheide. It is believed that the engineer battalion of Division Prenzlau which is stationed in Fuenfeichen number about 300 men.  Comment.  Comment. It was previously known that Paulus took his residence in Dresde This fact possibly led to the conclusion that he has become commandant of a new KVP condern.
	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus
	7。 1。 2。	During the reported period, the 2d A-Kommande dispatched field kitchens to Koen brusck where new KVP units were allegedly being organized.  former Field Marshal Paulus